NOTICE

The Affordable Care Act prohibits health plans from applying arbitrary dollar limits for coverage for key benefits. In 2012, if a plan applies a dollar limit on the coverage it provides for key benefits in a year, that limit must be at least $1.25 million.

The Health Limited Plan, offered by GuideStone Financial Resources, does not meet the minimum standards required by the Affordable Care Act described above. Instead, it puts an annual limit of: $2,000.00 on all covered medical benefits and $1,000.00 on supplemental accident benefits.

In order to apply the lower limits described above, this health plan requested a waiver of the requirement that coverage for key benefits be at least $1.25 million this year. That waiver was granted by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services based on this health plan's representation that providing $1.25 million in coverage for key benefits this year would result in a significant increase in your premiums or a significant decrease in your access to benefits. This waiver has been approved through December 31, 2013.

If the lower limits are a concern, there may be other options for health care coverage available to you and your family members. For more information, go to: www.HealthCare.gov.
